President's Message
Joe Olson

Fellow TNA ers

Fort Worth was a huge success for TNA We are deeply indebted to Mike Grant, Chris Keogh and Evertt Hull for the best run convention in our history Although all of the bills are not yet in, it appears as though TNA will split approximately $8,000 with Fort Worth Coin Company Additionally, we generated approximately $600 from the book auction and the net proceeds from medal sales have not yet been estimated Many thanks to all of our volunteers Mike Grant, Gary Hill and Frank Clark graciously worked yeoman like schedules at the front gate Benny Bolin and Paul Garner made heroic efforts at judging the exhibitions Paul did your judging sheets stay within this state or did Larry intentionally have some fun? To all of you who volunteered, we thank you and appreciate your service to TNA Just to name a few of the people that helped out Mr & Mrs Luke, Lamonte Pitzer Nela Runkle, Jerry Williams & Barbara Edwards

We are in the process of negotiating with a new convention promoter as Chris and Evertt have performed admirably Byron Paris has agreed to a new five year contract for the TNA convention to be held in Houston, TX The 1997 date is still unclear at publication however we will keep you informed as progress is made Karla we have not forgotten about your request concerning the San Antonio Show

Our award winners are featured in this publication of the TNA News All of these winners are to be congratulated by each of us for making TNA a stronger organization because of them It takes a lot of work for these folks to win an award and it is our hope that such efforts will be remembered as a highlight

The 1996 convention was a success for many dealers also We appreciate their patronage and look forward to hosting them in Houston next year We look forward to seeing you in Houston next year

Again, many thanks,

Joe Olson

A Few Words From the Editor

Mike Grant

I want to start out this time telling you what a great show and convention we had May 3-5. As the [illegible] convention [illegible] involved with most activities of the show. I want to thank a few people that made the show one of our best.

I have to start with Chris Keogh and Everett Hall without them we would not have had all the wonderful shows here in Fort Worth. Y[illegible] guys did us a great service. We thank you!

Now I want to turn to the volunteers that helped in so many ways. First Frank Clark had volunteered again this year to be the educational chairman and Benny Bolin was the exhibit chairman again. Both of these people have been tireless in their work and dedication for the show.

There are so many other volunteers that helped with the show by giving of their time it would take me pages to tell you all they did. I am going to list as many people as I can. If you do not see your name here it is because I sometimes have [illegible]gnizant slippage. Lets start with Lamonte Pitzer, Norma Mather, Barbara Edwards, Nela Runkle, Mr. and Mrs. Luke, Bob Millard, Mac McGaughey, Gary Hill, Beverly [illegible], Debbie Williams, Gary Andrews, Jim Howard, Ron Kersey, Brenda Phifer, Ben Hong, John Crevston, Hal Cherry and Harold Cleveger. Most of our volunteers were from the Dallas, Fort Worth and Mid Cities Coin Clubs. Without these people and others we would not have had the kind of success we had.

To everyone that donated items to the book auction we thank you. The materials you gave the auction brought in over $600.

I promised I would report on any show I attended. On May [illegible] I attended the 2nd Annual Mid-Season Coin Show at the Green Oaks [illegible] Fort Worth. The room was full and most dealers had buyers at their tables. I ran into people from the Dallas, Fort Worth, Mid Cities and Collin County Coin Clubs, not to mention a few from as far away as Lubbock. I would say this show was definately a success for everyone.

We are glad to have the San Angelo Coin Club join the TNA. We look forward to hearing from them.

As you may have read in Joe's message the show next year will be in Houston and Mr. Byron Paris will put this one on for us. I am the convention coordinator. Please contact me if you would like to volunteer to help out or have any suggestions.

If any of you have an article you would like put in the TNA News or any numismatically related subject please contact me. Thank you!

HARRY W. BASS, JR. RESEARCH FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES NIP INDEXES ARE NOW AVAILABLE

The Harry W. Bass, Jr. Research Foundation was brought into existence in December 1944. The purpose of the Research Foundation is to keep intact in perpetuity rare and very significant collections of U.S. Numismatics to the end that they will be available to serious numismatists for purposes of education and research.

The foundation announced in early February the availability of a set of electronic indexes for numismatists which can be downloaded through the internet. Called NIP, for the Numismatic Indexes Project, these eleven indexes provide any student or researcher an instantaneous way of locating what the scholarship of the past century has produced in major American numismatic periodicals. The indexes are in ASCII form, so can be used by any computer operating system and are made available free of charge to those interested in using this tool of research.

The eleven indexes cover a wide range of numismatic scholarship over many decades. From the American Numismatic Society they include: American Journal of Numismatics, 1866-1924; Museum Notes, 1945-1988; American Journal of Numismatics, Second Series, 1989-1995; Coinage of the American Conference (CDAC), 1984-1995; Numismatic Notes and Monographs, 1921-1968; ANS Proceedings, 1878-1914. Five other periodicals are also included in NIP: The Numismatist, 1888-1995 (ANA); Numismatic Scrapbook Magazine, 1935-1975; Coin World; Numismatic Review, 1943-1947 (Stack's); Coin Collector's Journal, 1875-1888; and Coin Collector's Journal, New Series, 1934-1954. The Foundation presently owns over eight hundred items which will be of significant interest to the scholar and student of United States Numismatics. The present collection consists of over two hundred fifty different specimens of large size U.S. paper currency, together with over five hundred United States pattern, experimental, and trial pieces. The currency covers the period from inception of U.S. currency at the beginning of the Civil War to the time it was withdrawn from circulation during the 1920's, at which time it was replaced by smaller bills.

The Pattern collection consists of an outstanding representation of the area of Numismatics which is so important to the researcher for a full understanding of the evolution of American coinage. Many specimens are quite rare, and all are in exemplary condition.

Persons interested in examining portions of the collections in pursuit of their numismatic research endeavors should contact the Foundation office at 8383 Douglas Ave., Suite 14[illegible], Dallas, Texas 75225 during normal office hours. Inquiries may call 214-[illegible] for more information.

AMAZING HOARD OF ANCIENT ROMAN DENARI

Due to a fortunate purchase by the Jonathan K. Kern Co. ancient department we can now offer again our very popular Roman empire denari portrait gallery. These ancient Roman silver denari (singular denarius) were struck during the height of the Roman Empire from 69 to 235 AD. The Roman Empire stretched from Scotland to Arabia, from Morrocco to Poland, from Germany to Egypt, and the Mediterranean was known as the "Roman Lake". It was an empire like the world had never known and has not known since. Dozens of aspiring generals and tyrants like Justinian, Charlemagne, Napoleon, and Hitler tried and failed to recreate the Roman Empire. All roads lead to Rome. When in Rome do as the Romans do. About every third word in the English language had its start in Roman Latin. Liberty on US coins is usually shown wearing or holding a Liberty cap which the Romans used to designate a free person. The Mercury head dime is named after the Roman messenger god. The fasces on the reverse is a symbol of Roman justice. The Roman Empire was the birth culture of the Christian religion. All one has to do is visit modern Rome now and look at the Colosseum built by Vespasian, the triumphal arch of Titus, Trajan's Column, and the Forum of Trajan. These are 2,000 year old ruins which represent only a small fraction of the awe inspiring grandeur of this amazing civilization.

The average weight is about 3.5 grams of good silver. They were hand struck with the reverse die embedded in an "anvil" of log cross section and the obverse die was held and struck with a hand sledge hammer. These silver jewels were struck in massive quantities to fuel the economic needs of a vast thriving empire, and indeed as this hoard demonstrates, the oldest denari in the hoard passed from hand to hand for over 125 years before being buried. They were struck by hand engraved dies by skilled artists known as celators. The portraits of all the different Roman emperors and their family members are like a portrait gallery of miniatures silver busts, or like a precious metal three dimensional photo album. The reverse dies were also carefully engraved, usually to depict all the gods, goddesses, heroes, and nymphs of Roman mythology. Other reverse commemmorated military victories, religious or political events, or just plain propaganda.

1. NERVA, 96-98 A.D., Fine $69

2. TRAJAN, 98-117 A.D., VF $79

The silver denarius was also the power base by which Roman emperors maintained the loyalty of their legions These paid professional legionaires, though proud to be part of the Roman army were just as happy serving a rival claimant to the Imperial Purple if he happened to have a more generous war chest overflowing with denari All through the reign's NERVA and all the other Adoptive emperors the standard pay of the legionaire was 300 denari a year

Just by handling these treasures of the past one can almost hear the drums giving a cadence to the tromp of the Legion's advance and the trumpets signaling the charge against the enemy lines! But after the battles are over and the paymaster has distributed the denari to the surviving legions what happened then? For a denarius a Roman could buy 12 large loaves of bread, or 24 small loaves A serving of table wine (probably watered which was acceptable) cost an as or 1/16 of a denarius Vintage wine cost 1/4 a denarius a serving In the Holy Land an amphora of olive oil from the Galilee cost one denarius A bunch of grapes or 10 figs cost an as, or 1/16 of a denarius An ox sold for 100 denari, and a calf 20 denari and a ram 8 denari and 5 sparrows cost 1/8 denarius It could cost a trader 10,000 denari to lease a ship (galley) A scribe, a highly educated man, earned 12 denari a week He ate and drank for 4 denari a week and his clothing also cost 4 denari a week (he must have dressed quite well because a commoner could buy sackcloth which would last years for only 4 denari)

3 HADRIAN 117-138 A D , VF $79

4 SABINA, died 137 A D , Fine $69

COINAGE OF ROME'S ZENITH

The English historian Edward Gibbon termed the second century A.D. the "happiest age in history." Between 96 and 180 A.D. the Roman Empire was ruled by a series of capable emperors. After the assassination in A.D. 96 of Domitian, the last of the Flavian emperors, the Senate chose one of their own members, the elderly NERVA to succeed to the throne. To secure the support of the army, the new emperor adopted the general TRAJAN as his son and heir in A.D. 97. This adoption set a precedent for the next four emperors--TRAJAN, HADRIAN, ANTONINUS PIUS, and MARCUS AURELIUS, would come to the throne as the adoptive son of their predecessor. Under these "adoptive emperors," the Roman Empire would reach the zenith of its power and prosperity.

In A.D. 98 TRAJAN became emperor upon the death of NERVA. Under TRAJAN, the Roman Empire underwent its last significant territorial expansion. After two campaigns (A.D. 101-102 and 105-106) TRAJAN annexed the kingdom of the Dacians (modern Romania). In the Forum of Rome there still stands the awe inspiring column of TRAJAN depicting the military campaign against the Dacians in detail as over 2,500 figures spiral upward around the 125 foot height.

In A D 105 the Kingdom of the Nabataeans was converted into the Roman province of Arabia Petraea In A D 114 a dispute with Parthia led TRAJAN to annex Armenia and invade Mesopotamia In A D 116 Mesopotamia was declared a Roman province However rebellions in the East, including those of the Jews forced TRAJAN to retreat He died in A D 117 before he could resume campaigning in the East Before his death, TRAJAN named his adopted son HADRIAN as his heir

The reign of HADRIAN was one of consolidation The new emperor gave up TRAJAN'S eastern conquests--Arminia regained its former status as a Roman vassal state Other Frontiers were strengthened In Britian the wall he built to defend against the Scottish tribes is still to be seen HADRIAN spent most of his reign outside of Italy touring the provinces to see first-hand what were each territory's needs HADRIAN married a grand neice of TRAJAN'S named SABINA but they had no children, so in A D 136, HADRIAN adopted a certain L. CEIONIUS COMMODUS, who took the name AELIUS CAESAR, as his son and heir However the death of AELIUS in A D 138 compelled HADRIAN to designate a new heir, ANTONINUS. In turn, HADRIAN compelled ANTONINUS to adopt LUCIUS VERUS, the son of AELIUS, and a nephew of ANTONINUS, MARCUS ANNIUS VERUS, renamed MARCUS AURELIUS HADRIAN died later that same year

The reign of ANTONINUS PIUS (A D 138-161) was notable chiefly for its tranquility, although in Britian a new defensive line north of HADRIAN'S wall was built to keep the Scottish tribes further at bay His wife FAUSTINA SENIOR died in 141 A D so the vast majority of her coinage was commemorative in nature Also notable was the long apprenticeship of MARCUS AURELIUS, who was named Ceasar in A D 139 He married a daughter of ANTONINUS PIUS and FAUSTINA in 145 A D She is known to history as FAUSTINA JUNIOR By the time of the death of ANTONINUS in A D 161 MARCUS was thoroughly prepared to assume the burdens of office As it turned out they would prove to be considerable

Upon his accession MARCUS AURELIUS elevated his adoptive brother, LUCIUS VERUS to the position of co-emperor MARCUS however was clearly the supreme authority LUCIUS married the eldest daughter, LUCILLA, of MARCUS and FAUSTINA JUNIOR in 164 A D MARCUS was to spend much of his reign on campaign Invasions of German tribes from the north and of Parthians from the east bedevilled the empire Plague brought back from the east by the army in A D 166, swept the empire (a second wave of plague carried LUCIUS VERUS away in A D 169) Despite these shocks, MARCUS was able to restore order on the eastern frontier and was poised to annex territories on the northern frontier at the time of his death A D 180 MARCUS was succeeded by his son COMMODUS, thus breaking the pattern of succession through adoption and with the acession, Rome's greatest era came to an end

COMMODUS proved to be a despot who became quite insane COMMODUS thought he was the god Hercules and he is depicted as Hercules on a number of his coins He would enter the arena himself to fight gladiators and wild beasts There were several plots against him one of which involved his sister LUCILLA whom he put to death COMMODUS' wife CRISPINA was banished early in his reign and later executed COMMODUS was eventually assassinated Dec 31 192 A D and the Roman Empire entered an era of anarchy

Coin Collectors and Dealers Are a "Rare Bred" For Coin Shop in Lubbock

People have always heard this statement and maybe thought it had a negative meaning. My husband, Dick, and I just opened Rice's Coin shop in Lubbock, and this statement really came true with a positive meaning. I have never seen a nicer, more helpful group of people. All of the collectors, and many of the dealers across the state were right there to offer help and encouragement.

At our grand opening there were between 80 & 85 people. We want to thank everyone for the great response and all the help. I am President of the South Plains Coin Club and I believe "Coin People are truly a Rare Breed", because coins are fun, whether you are buying, selling, trading, or just looking.

Thank you - Sharron & Dick Rice.
